

BMW Financial Services - Complaints Process

How to submit a complaint.

If our products or services do not live up to your expectations, you have the right to complain. When we get a complaint from you, we will listen to you and do our best to solve your issue quickly and fairly. While we do this, we will keep you updated.

Whether you are a customer with us or a potential customer, you can complain about something you are not happy about.

Ways to Complain.

You can submit a complaint by email, in writing or by calling us.

You can contact us by:

How we manage your complaint.

We recognise that there will be times when customers are unhappy with the service, they receive from us.

When we get your complaint, we will try to resolve it as soon as possible. As part of the investigation, we may need to contact you to discuss the issue.

If we are unable to resolve your complaint to your satisfaction within 5 business days (Business Days are Monday to Friday and exclude Bank Holidays), we will write to you to let you know that we got your complaint.

When we say that we will write to you, we mean that we will send you a letter or an email. We will also give you a complaint reference number and let you know the name of the person dealing with your complaint.

We will need more time to investigate some complaints. If this is the case, we will keep you fully informed and will contact you every 20 business days until we complete our investigation. When we have reached the end of our investigation, we will write to you with our final response.

We aim to decide on your complaint within 40 business days.

If we cannot give you a final response within 40 business days, we will clearly explain why, and we will tell you when we expect to give you a final response. If we have not resolved your complaint within 40 Business days, and you have the right, you can refer your complaint to the Financial Service and Pensions Ombudsman (FSPO).

If you are not happy with our Final Response.

We will always aim to deal with your complaint fairly and promptly, but we understand that it will not always be possible resolve the matter.

If you are not satisfied with the outcome, and you have the right, you can refer your complaint to the Financial Services and Pensions Ombudsman (FSPO). The Financial Services and Pensions Ombudsman is independent. They deal with complaints from consumers about financial service providers. It is a free service for you.
